

THE ANTIOCHIAN ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN
ARCHDIOCESE OF THE BRITISH ISLES AND IRELAND

Archdiocesan Conference 2019

Working in the Lord's Vineyard:
Nurturing Children and Converts in the Faith
with His Eminence, Metropolitan Silouan

Monday 27th May (3.00 pm) to Wednesday 29th May (2.00 pm) 2019

New Venue!

Yarnfield Park, Stone Staffordshire

About the Conference

His Eminence Metropolitan Silouan has blessed the topic of nurturing the parish community – in other words, mission! The speakers this year will reflect on how a healthy parish grows: by living the Gospel, and teaching it to our children and to those who come to us seeking the Truth.

All are Welcome!

THE ANTIOCHIAN ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN
ARCHDIOCESE OF THE BRITISH ISLES AND IRELAND

Archdiocesan Conference 2019

Working in the Lord's Vineyard:
Nurturing Children and Converts in the Faith
with His Eminence, Metropolitan Silouan

Confirmed Speakers:

Archpriest Gregory Hallam (Dean), Parish of St Aidan
The Reverend Doctor Alexander Tefft (Conference Director), Parish of St Botolph
Subdeacon Ioannis Bridges, Parish of St Botolph
Dr Kleio Kechaya
Sister Magdalene of the Monastery of St John the Baptist, Tolleshunt Knights
Kh. Annemieke Lommaert-Blondeel

Confirmed Topics:

The Future of the Church: Catechising Children and Converts
Integrating Converts: the Alaska Mission
Nurturing Children and Converts in a Secular Britain and Ireland
Nurturing Converts in Multi-religious Britain and Ireland
Explaining the Faith to Teens and Youth
Working the Vineyard in a Technological Age

All are Welcome!